Glossary

Carbon intensity

The Carbon Intensity of the portfolio is defined as the weighted sum of the carbon intensities of the underlying assets in the portfolio.

Emissions reduction target

If a company has a target for reducing its carbon emissions, this indicator assesses the commitment to that target. Higher scores are given to companies that are actively seeking to reduce their emissions from an already relatively low level. Apart from companies without a target, the lowest scores are for companies with high levels of emissions that are seeking only minor reductions. For small companies, where carbon reduction targets are relatively rare, a moderately high score is given for any type of carbon reduction target.

Score referring to the management of the transition to a low-carbon economy

This score is an indicator of a company's performance in managing the risks and opportunities associated with the transition to a low carbon economy. It combines assessments of the management of the following key issues:

(i) greenhouse gas emissions management, (ii) carbon footprint of products and services, etc. The higher the score, the more effectively the company is managing these issues. (Score: 0-10).

SFDR articles

Article 6: the financial product does not necessarily promote ESG characteristics or have specific sustainable investment objectives.

Article 8: the financial product promotes certain environmental and social characteristics.

Article 9: the financial product has sustainable investment objectives.

Category "transition to a low carbon economy"

This indicator classifies companies according to their exposure to the risks and opportunities associated with the transition to a low-carbon economy.

The different categories are :

Asset Stranding: assets that lose value due to unfavourable market developments (legislation, environmental constraints, technological disruptions) that cause significant devaluation (e.g. companies owning coal mines);

Operational transition: a company facing increased operating costs due to carbon taxes or having to make significant investments to implement solutions to reduce their greenhouse gas emissions (e.g. cement producers);

Product offering in transition: a company facing a decline in demand for carbon-intensive products and having to shift its product offering towards products compatible with a low-carbon economy (e.g. the automotive sector);

Neutral: a company with low exposure to increases in operating costs/capital expenditure associated with the transition to a low-carbon economy (e.g. the healthcare sector);

Solutions: a company that provides products or services that are expected to benefit from the transition to a low-carbon economy (e.g. renewable energy power producers).

Green share

Share of sales of underlying assets contributing to transition :

Low: from 1 to 19.9% of sales

Moderate: 20 to 49.9% of sales

High: 50 to 100% of sales
