We are pleased to announce that the R-co Valor Bond Opportunities fund has been awarded the “Globe de la Gestion 2021” in the “Best promising Bond” category.

Emmanuel Petit & Julien Boy, managers of the funds, received this award during a ceremony organised by the magazine Gestion de Fortune.

The objective of the “Globes de la Gestion” is to bring together the leading asset managers and to reward the most consistent fund managers in terms of results in recent years.

“The award recognises the expertise of bond team, whose opportunistic investment philosophy is based on fundamental thinking combined with great flexibility.” Emmanuel Petit, Head of Fixed Income

R-co Valor Bond Opportunities is a sub-fund of the R-co SICAV.

The SRRI indicator defines the risk/return profile of a UCI on a scale from +1, the lowest risk level and lowest expected return, to +7, the highest risk level and highest expected return. Historical data, such as that used to calculate the synthetic indicator, may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The risk category associated with this fund is not guaranteed and may change over time.

The lowest risk category does not mean «risk free». The capital initially invested is not guaranteed.

In particular, the investor is exposed to a risk of capital loss. For more details on the risks, the investor can refer to the «Risk Profile» section of the prospectus of this UCI.

For more information on fees, please refer to the “Fees and Expenses” section of the prospectus of this sub-fund of the R-co SICAV, which is available on written request from the following address: <http://www.am.eu.rothschildandco.com/>
